HOW A SOUTHERN GIRL MADE A FORTUNE.-Miss Jessie McIntosh daughter of Judge McIntosh, of the U S. Court in Florida, who was born and raised in Savannah, went to New York unheralded and unknown, but is now, as the result of her own talents and +f forts, says the Savannah News, the possessor of a most comfortable for tune. She became first an amanuensis for a New York firm which was engaged in the business of transporting tallow. She invented an automatic de vice for draining the accumulating wa ter from tallow tank cars, for which the company paid her $10,000 in cash and gave her $30,000 in the company's stock, then worth 25 cents on the dollar. This stock she held until it went up to $150, and disposed of it. She has accumulated an independent fortune, and she and her mother reside in New York city in a flat for which she pays $1,500 a year.
